

Stack Billiani

2 weeks (Stocked)

Stack is a collection of colourful blown glass tables. They are designed by Niccolò Devetag, who was inspired by glass's unique ability to blend traditional values with modernity, and to interact with the light to create striking colour reflections within a space, as well as being durable and infinitely recyclable. The design's modular nature makes it extremely flexible: by stacking the pieces, even in different colours, tables of varying heights can be created.
